I think music and poetry are really good things in our world

large crowds of people :-)

Dear country leaders,

Could you please stop being so right-wing?

And Geert, why do you hate Muslims so much?

Yes, our country is small but there's loads of empty buildings so stop being so mean to refugees. There's space enough.

Also, schools need more funding, and stop lowering taxes.

We don't mind paying them. But taxes for the top 1% should be much higher.

finally WHEN are you going to solve the plastic soup problem? There's a solution, and you have money???

So, please start caring more about the environment and the people that live in the Netherlands, including refugees.

Thanks.
